

Gourmet

Matsuba Crab (TOTTORI)
The dense meat and refined flavor of Matsuba crabs make them one of the representative winter delicacies of Tottori Prefecture. They are in season from November to March.

Oysters (HIROSHIMA)
The oyster output of Hiroshima Prefecture ranks No. 1 in Japan. Oysters grown in the Seto Inland Sea, which have high nutritional value, are very big and thick tasty especially right after being harvested from the sea.

Okonomiyaki (HIROSHIMA)
Hiroshima-style okonomiyaki, voluminous with cabbage and soba or udon noodles, is the most famous as Hiroshima soul food.

Blowfish (YAMAGUCHI)
Wild blowfish caught at Shimonoseki Port are renowned as the king of winter cuisine. They are served as sashimi, deep-fried, in a hot pot and so on.

Nature

⑨ Akiyoshidai Plateau, Akiyoshido Cave
Akiyoshido is one of the biggest limestone caves in Japan. You can enjoy the artistic beauty that nature has created in rock formations such as Hundred Plates and Golden Column. Akiyoshidai, the largest karst plateau in Japan, is a place filled with mystery that was created over 300 million years.

⑩ Tottori Sand Dunes

The Tottori Sand Dunes stretch 16km from east to west, and 2.4km from north to south. The coastal dunes feature some of the world's most prominent undulations. The sand patterns created by wind and water are natural works of art.

⑪ Oki Islands

The Oki islands are located about 50 km north of the mainland. Blessed by its location in the Sea of Japan, you can see spectacular cliffs and unique shaped rocks eroded by the wind and waves.

⑫ Hiruzen Plateau

Mt Daisen, Mt. Hiruzen and the highlands spreading at their feet are popular resort areas full of natural beauty. Renting a bike and cycling joyfully on the highlands is our recommendation!

Sightseeing spots

⑬ Kurashiki Bikan Historical Quarter

Kurashiki City is renowned for its white walls and rich culture. The Bikan Historical Quarter in Kurashiki City has inherited the Japanese atmosphere of the good old days, and the structural styles of the houses show the taste of the Edo period (1603-1867). This quarter was awarded a two-star rating by the Michelin Green Guide.

⑭ Mizuki Shigeru Road

153 bronze statues of yokai folklore creatures line the approximately 800 meter street. There are many popular character goods for sale which are only available at Mizuki Shigeru Road.

⑮ Adachi Museum of Art

The museum has received three stars from the Michelin Green Guide and Guide Bleu Japon. Adachi Museum's Japanese garden has been selected as the No. 1 Japanese Garden in Japan for ten consecutive years by a U.S. magazine.

⑯ Inujima Island

This is the Inujima Art Project "Seirensuo". The island has a new life as an Art Museum by preserving and reusing the remains of a copper refinery found there.
